Beyond Nam Dong is Roger H. C. Donlon's personal story of family, faith and freedom. It begins with his boyhood days in up state New York, continues with his account of the siege of Nam Dong, Vietnam, and ends with his own path to reconciliation. With Foreword by General William C. Westmoreland, United States Army (Retired.)

In his own words the author describes the battle that he and his brave twelve-man Special Forces Team, A-726, fought and won at Nam Dong. For his valor at Nam Dong, Roger Donlon became the first American soldier of the Vietnam War to be awarded our nation's highest military decoration... the Medal of Honor. Beyond Nam Dong is also the story of the author's return to Vietnam... almost 20 years after the bloody battle.
